UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Our in-person service will stream live on Facebook, and you can also find a recording of the live service on our website hapevilleumc.com.

We welcome you to Hapeville First UMC! We're so glad you've joined us today. We welcome you whether you are young in age or young at heart; whether your skin is Black, Brown, White, Blue, Orange, or any other color of the rainbow. We welcome those who have been in isolation during COVID and those who are experiencing the freedom of the vaccine. We welcome you regardless of your political party (or lack of one!), how you do your hair, who you love, how many tattoos you have, how many As Bs Cs Ds or Fs you got on your last report card, how much sugar you take in your coffee, or however you refer to carbonated beverages (your Pastor says "soda" and his wife says "pop"). We not only welcome you, but we celebrate the things that make you the way that you are: a beloved child of God. There is a place for you here.
 Welcome.

John 3:1-17 Common English Bible

3 There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a Jewish leader. 2 He came to Jesus at night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God, for no one could do these miraculous signs that you do unless God is with him.” 3 Jesus answered, “I assure you, unless someone is born anew, it’s not possible to see God’s kingdom.” 4 Nicodemus asked, “How is it possible for an adult to be born? It’s impossible to enter the mother’s womb for a second time and be born, isn’t it?” 5 Jesus answered, “I assure you, unless someone is born of water and the Spirit, it’s not possible to enter God’s kingdom. 6 Whatever is born of the flesh is flesh, and whatever is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Don’t be surprised that I said to you, ‘You must be born anew.’ 8 God’s Spirit blows wherever it wishes. You hear its sound, but you don’t know where it comes from or where it is going. It’s the same with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” 9 Nicodemus said, “How are these things possible?” 10 “Jesus answered, “You are a teacher of Israel and you don’t know these things? 11 I assure you that we speak about what we know and testify about what we have seen, but you don’t receive our testimony. 12 If I have told you about earthly things and you don’t believe; how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? 13 No one has gone up to heaven except the one who came down from heaven, the Human One. 14 Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so must the Human One be lifted up 15 so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life. 16 God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him won’t perish but will have eternal life. 17 God didn’t send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

While many of us have reached full vaccination, we encourage anyone who has not reached full vaccination (two weeks after your final shot) to continue to wear a mask and maintain social distance while in our building, per the CDC guidelines. While the CDC has loosened restrictions for mask-wearing and social distance for those who are fully vaccinated, we encourage those who are fully vaccinated to do what they are comfortable doing with a clear conscience and no guilt when it comes to engaging in our normal practices of worship with or without a mask. Please extend the grace and love you wish to receive to others.
