ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Our Adult Sunday School Class meets every Sunday at 9:45 am. Come and be edified by discussion, fellowship, and studying of the word of God.
- Choir rehearsals will be scheduled weekly on Wednesday nights at 7:00pm. If you're interested in joining in, you are welcome to do so! Reach out to Rosie and let her know you're coming,
- Thank you to all who made the Holy Ghost Weenie Roast a big success! We had about 60 folks come and enjoy hotdogs and a movie on our projector screen. Seriously, y'all stepped up!
- We will be hosting a special Community Memorial Service tomorrow night, Monday 11/1 at 7:00pm. This is All Saints Day, and it seems like a perfect time to remember those who have passed away during the pandemic and whose lives we have not had an opportunity to celebrate together as a community.

Welcome to Hapeville First UMC! We are so excited that you have chosen to be with us today in our community worship to set our agenda of worship in the world for the rest of the week. There is a place for you here, whether you drink milk that is 1%, 2%, skim, or whole, or half and half or just straight cream.

There is a place for you here whatever you listen to, whether that's Classical Music, The Eagles, Metallica, Kaskade, Kendrick Lamar, The Highwomen, Kenny G, Britney Spears, or Beyoncé. There's a place for you here if you don't know any of those musicians. There's a place for you whether you get your caffeine from coffee, Coca Cola (even if you prefer Pepsi, though I'd keep that to yourself around the Metro area), sweet tea, unsweet tea (so, if you're Yankee, there's still a place for you), or even if you abstain from caffeine. There's a place for you, whoever you are, because Christ told us to make a place for you, and we take that seriously. We welcome you here because of who you are: a child of God. Welcome!

We strongly encourage everyone to follow the CDC guidance, which recommends that everyone wears masks indoors to prevent breakthrough cases of COVID-19, and especially to protect the most vulnerable among us.

Welcome Rev. Chris Rapko

*Call To Worship Rev. Chris Rapko

Leader: The earth and all that is in it belongs to the Holy One.

People: Look, this is our God, for whom we have waited.

Leader: Will you come to the hill of the Holy One?

People: We come, seeking the face of God. Come, let us worship.

In Christ Alone Rosie Smith & David Reeb

Welcome! You will find instructions in this rubric for our worship! Think of it as a running commentary.

*Means "Please stand in body or in spirit."

Generally, if it's in boldface, it means you are supposed to read it aloud. This is called a "Responsive Reading."

Our leader will prompt you to respond. Watch their hands.

As John Wesley would say, "Sing lustily," whether you can carry a tune or not.

We have returned to lectionary texts for the next month!

After we hear the Word proclaimed in our lesson and Sermon, we respond its proclamation by affirming our faith, through prayer, and by meditating upon it through music.

The Pastoral prayer is a time to lift up those people and situations who are on our hearts and minds to God, whether vocally, virtually, or silently. After each vocalization we respond as listed in our order. The Pastoral Prayer concludes with us all saying The Lord's Prayer.

Our gifts and tithes are one way that we respond to God's Word proclaimed.

The Doxology literally means a "word of praise/glory," where we thank God, the source of our blessings.

Thank you for being with us today! Have a Blessed Week!

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Pastoral Prayer Rev. Chris Rapko

Leader: Lord, in your mercy...

People: Hear our prayer.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. AMEN.

Job 42

Job answered the Lord:

2 I know you can do anything;

no plan of yours can be opposed successfully.

3 You said, "Who is this darkening counsel without knowledge?"

I have indeed spoken about things I didn't understand, wonders beyond my comprehension.

4 You said, "Listen and I will speak;

I will question you and you will inform me."

5 My ears had heard about you, but now my eyes have seen you.

6 Therefore, I relent and find comfort on dust and ashes.

7 After the Lord had spoken these words to Job, he said to Eliphaz from Teman, "I'm angry at you and your two friends because you haven't spoken about me correctly as did my servant Job. 8 So now, take seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and prepare an entirely burned offering for yourselves. Job my servant will pray for you, and I will act favorably by not making fools of you because you didn't speak correctly, as did my servant Job."

9 Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah did what the Lord told them; and the Lord acted favorably toward Job. 10 Then the Lord changed Job's fortune when he prayed for his friends, and the Lord doubled all Job's earlier possessions. 11 All his brothers, sisters, and acquaintances came to him and ate food with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him concerning all the disaster the Lord had brought on him, and each one gave him a qesitah and a gold ring. 12 Then the Lord blessed Job's latter days more than his former ones. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. 13 He also had seven sons and three daughters. 14 He named one Jemimah, a second Keziah, and the third Kerenhappuch. 15 No women in all the land were as beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave an inheritance to them along with their brothers. 16 After this, Job lived 140 years and saw four generations of his children. 17 Then Job died, old and satisfied.

Leader: This is the Word of God for the people of God...

People: Thanks be to God.
